choirs and bands as well as refreshments

Bullying and cyber bullying repeatedly undermine all students, whether they are bystanders, bullied and/or the bully. Through song, storytelling, student panels and experiential learning, this event will give STUDENTS, PARENTS, and TEACHERS:

- Follow up lesson plans to empower participants to contribute their voices and strengths to their schools, homes and community
- Resources to create powerful leaders that use their unique voices to effect change
- Strategies to continue the legacy of greatness of the voices of our ancestors

Schools that participate will:

- Compete in an essay and artwork competition. The winners will receive select prizes and will be featured during the open panel as well as on Project Bully Free Zone social media applications
- Feature selected student art work during the event
