

FREE FINANCIAL COUNSELING NOW AVAILABLE AT BRONX BOROUGH HALL

Beginning February 2016, Bronx Borough President Ruben Diaz Jr. and Phipps Neighborhoods are partnering to provide confidential, one-on-one counseling for Bronxites who need tools and support to better manage their finances.

A trained counselor will help you identify your financial challenges and guide you in addressing:

- bad credit
- paying down debt by resolving credit card and other debts
- understanding and improving credit scores
- disputing incorrect credit report items
- opening a bank account and increasing savings
- researching and applying for government benefits
- detecting and reporting identity theft
- improving financial habits by developing a budget and prioritizing spending
